

Glenn Abbey Software, Inc. Modules Selected for Intel Solutions Catalog

We're proud to inform you that the Discipline Module and Food Service/Point of Sale Module for Centre from Glenn Abbey Software, Inc. has been selected for the Intel® Developer Solutions Catalog.

This is Intel's real-time catalog of third-party software applications, all of which have been optimized or tuned for Intel® architecture and Intel XScale® technology. Intel Corporation® continues to support quality open source applications and we're proud to be a part of this movement

Glenn Abbey Software, Inc. has also been selected for complimentary membership in the Intel® Early Access Program. The Intel® Early Access Program provides advance access to Intel® platforms, technologies, and business development tools, supporting commercial as well as open source developers.
